

Aryannah Harlston

Nashville, TN | (615) 838-5802 | aryharlston@gmail.com | LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/aryannah-harlston/>

Professional Summary

Driven Computer Information Technology student with strong foundations in finance, coding, and business operations. Experienced in project-based learning, problem-solving, and team collaboration. Skilled at applying technology to practical solutions and eager to contribute technical, analytical, and communication skills in a professional internship or entry-level role.

Technical & Professional Skills

- Programming: Python, JavaScript
 - Data & Finance: Budgeting, Portfolio Analysis, Financial Literacy
 - Tools: Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
 - Soft Skills: Communication, Teamwork, Leadership, Conflict Resolution
 - Languages: Fluent in English | Conversational in Spanish | Beginner in Japanese
-

Education

Austin Peay State University – Clarksville, TN

Bachelor of Science, Computer Information Technology Systems | Expected Graduation: 2027

Relevant Experience

Student Volunteer | Republic High School | 2019 – 2022

- Assisted in planning and executing school and community events, strengthening organizational and communication skills.
 - Engaged with diverse audiences to increase program participation.
 - Recognized for reliability, time management, and professionalism.
-

Projects

Personal Finance Portfolio

- Created a simulated investment portfolio and performed financial analysis on performance trends.
- Developed budgeting strategies to maximize savings and reduce debt risk.

Coding Portfolio

- Designed and built basic web applications and scripts using Python and JavaScript.
 - Applied problem-solving and coding best practices to improve functionality and efficiency.
-

Additional Information

- Open to relocation and remote opportunities
- Strong interest in finance, technology, and community service
- Committed to continuous learning and professional growth